- B. Department and County Legislator Reports:

Town Clerk: Clerk Hill said that her office was selling many hunting licenses and that she was learning the budget process.

Assessor: nothing to report

Code Enforcement Officer: CEO Raduns said he has been using the new building permit in Yates and the Village of Lyndonville. Attorney Bogan said we will need a building permit for just Ridgeway next year and CEO Raduns assured the Board it would be a simple switch. He has been issuing permits, stop work orders, etc. He also asked if someone could look at the wifi at the end of the building as it cuts out at times.

Highway Superintendent: Superintendent Olinger said the highway department had finished all the sealing and had been helping the County with roadwork. They have been reading water meters, doing some water shut-offs, and fall roadside mowing.

Town Attorney: Attorney Bogan said we had been served a Notice of Claim regarding a motor vehicle accident in Ridgeway.

C. Councilman Reports:

Councilman Payne: nothing to report

Councilman Toussaint: Councilman Toussaint said that the summer recreation program had a successful season and he was very pleased by the work of Michelle Capstick. He appreciated the Board contributing more to the program this year.

Councilman Barber: nothing to report

Councilwoman Woodruff: Councilwoman Woodruff mentioned the application period for the Hometown Heroes banners was coming to a close.
