The meeting was called to order by Supervisor Napoli at 2:00PM.

The tentative budget was presented to the Board and Supervisor Napoli explained that the budget is within constraints of the two percent tax cap.

Joanna Follman showed the Board that we were able to stay within the tax cap despite rising costs by using unexpended balances from prior years. She went through the budget thoroughly with the Board, explaining each account and their increases.

Rising costs of ambulance services, health insurance, and other services were discussed. The Board talked about some solutions to big jumps in costs, including adding more funds to NYCLASS to accrue interest at a rate much higher than the local bank can offer.
